DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Species VI. in the reply filed on June 14, 2005 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 3. Claims 1-3, 5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Happy Mats: Scraper Mats ("Scraper Mats").

"Scraper Mats" discloses a method including placing a first mat on a floor space proximate to a first side of a passage area, and placing a second mat on a floor space proximate to a second side of the passage area. The two mats are identical in color (claims 2, 5 and 7) and texture (claim 3), which constitutes having visually observable coordinated content.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Happy Mats: Scraper Mats ("Scraper Mats") in view of Happy Mats: Washable Rubber Backed Logo Mats ("Logo Mats").

"Scraper Mats" discloses the invention substantially as claimed, as set forth above.

However, the mats do not include text information. "Logo Mats" teaches that it was known in the art to apply text information to entry mats of the type disclosed by "Scraper Mats." It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to apply matching text information to the mats disclosed by "Scraper Mats," as taught by "Logo Mats," in order to provide customers with a safety warning.

Regarding claim 6, the message constitutes a decorative theme.

Conclusion

- 6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
